WITH HONOR WORKSHOP

October 27th
from 6:00-8:00pm

With Honor Workshop

When a first responder's career comes to an end the residual effects of the work do not fade away easily. This workshop will include adjusting to a new identity in career/life. This 2-3 hour workshop helps provide knowledge and skills to first responders to prepare, adjust and grow when their career ends, and to do so With Honor.
